SUBJECT: DECLARE WAR AGAINST EVIL NOW!

I was on my way to work this morning, same as every morning, here in the sunny Seattle, WA area. I take a short walk from where I park my car to my bus stop and from there I ride with my fellow men and women in silence as we prepare for yet another sad work day, 1000's of miles across the country from New York and Washington, D.C.

I've read our Constitution and our Bill of Rights! And I have read parts of the Bible too. I know the difference between right and wrong. Trust me.

I've been back east with my oldest son Jason, we visited the battle fields of our own civil war, we visited New York, Yankee Stadium, the World Trade Center, the Statue of Liberty, Washington D.C. where we saw a hot 4th of July display and stood in front of the Vietnam Memorial, Boston, Philadelphia where our Liberty Bell rests and Plymouth Rock where some of our forefathers and mothers first stepped foot on this great nation and were warmly greeted by our brothers, the Native Americans at the time.

We have done good things and bad as we have grown over the years, before I was born and after. We try, most of us try, to make the world a better place to live.

As I was walking and thinking about our history and what we, our ancestors and those who have fought for our freedom, have gone through to etch out a fortress of freedom and a foundation for a better life for all, I began to think back to when I was in school and how we used to start each school day by pledging our allegiance to our flag and great country and then I just started crying and crying, just as I am crying as I type this message now.

DAMN IT ANYWAY!

I'm 47 years old and what can I do? What can WE do to make this planet a better place to live? All I can think of is WAR. Not just talk about WAR. The act of WAR!!

I want you to command us and lead us and do what must be done...

NOW!

1. Draft a formal declaration of WAR against all people EVERYWHERE who are KNOWN to dictate via the forces of EVIL. ANYONE who raises a weapon against others, anyone who expounds evil towards others will, and should be, formally listed in this declaration as OUR enemy and the enemy of the entire population of mother Earth. THIS is what we MUST do and WHO we must march against NOW... no matter where they reside or who protects them.
2. WE must ask our bothers in other great nations to stand by us or to stand aside BUT do not stand against us! It is time to stand up and be counted. It is time to draw the line and choose a side. GOOD or EVIL? Which will it be??
3. We must declare our resolve by first gaining full and 100% support from both our House of Representatives and our Senate and if any legislator refuses to stand with us their name should be singled out and cast in stone at the foot of the Washington Monument just ahead of each and every name of each and every person who died in this attack on our country on Tuesday, September 11, 2001. Anyone, in our government who hesitates to stand with us should be ashamed of themselves and their name should be recorded next to the dead to remind our future leaders for as long as we all shall live.
4. We should also resolve to carry this WAR out FOREVER from this day forward. We should PLEDGE at least 10% of all taxes ever collected from this day forward to be ear marked against EVIL and used to STAMP IT OUT for all time. Once we wipe out evil among mankind then we can continue by wiping out evil in all its other forms. This WAR should be well funded and it should never stop! It may never be won. BUT it is still our job to march on and to ask all others with a good heart to march on with us, by setting the best possible example and by leading them forth with true resolve.
5. Finally, we must once again make sure that we always pledge allegiance to our flag and to the great nation for which it stands.

This is what WE should do and this is what YOU need to do NOW, as our leader(s).

March On With Our Full Support... PLEASE!
